

Campaign AGAINST The Bedroom Tax

UNITING
OUR COMMUNITIES
fairness – justice – respect

One year after the Tories brought in Bedroom Tax it is collapsing round their ears

- Scotland has effectively done away with this Tory tax
- The '96 loophole' has meant that large numbers are suddenly exempt
- Cases have now allowed the reclassifying of bedrooms - if it does not have a bed and you use it for something else it is not a bedroom
- Cases have won the right for a separated parent to have a bedroom for children visiting

The campaign against the Bedroom Tax has won these victories.

But we need to destroy this hated tax. One year is already too long!

On April 5th there will be demonstrations in many towns and cities saying it is time to AXE THE TAX.
